Let Triple Disc know if you would like us to incorporate our ideas/expertise into the design or if you would prefer we emulate your ideas as closely as possible.

One last note:

Please be aware that switching between ideas, changing the concept, or asking your designer to work up multiple options will probably incur additional charges. If you do not provide Triple Disc with specific design ideas, your designer will be happy to come up with a design from scratch. You should be advised that significant changes to this free-form design will probably incur additional charges.
